Books for Foreign Language Courses

Help Your Students Speak, Read, and Write a New Language

UPDATED FOR 2006

RANDOM HOUSE, INC.

LIVING LANGUAGE
n response to the recent announcement of the new National Security Language Initiative by President Bush and other government officials, Random House, Inc. and Living Language® are delighted to offer a wide-ranging list of titles to enhance foreign-language study in the United States. According to the Department of Education, new and expanded programs from kindergarten through university, and in military schools and beyond, will allow the NSLI to significantly increase skill levels in “critical need” foreign languages such as Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, Russian, and others.

Random House, Inc. is committed to making language accessible to both teachers and students. The titles found in this brochure are excellent additions to any classroom or library. The lessons are realistic and up-to-date, and the materials are affordably priced compared to traditional textbooks. The Ultimate series from Living Language® in particular has been used successfully as core instructional material in colleges, proprietary language schools, and adult education classes. Other Living Language® courses, such as our 2000+ Verbs, provide perfect supplementary material for any foreign language curriculum.

The books included in this pamphlet are ideal for course adoption, reference, or as travel companions to students heading abroad. They are arranged by series (ranging from beginner to advanced) and, for your browsing convenience, are color-coded by language.

COMPLETE SERIES

The "Complete Series" has now been fully revised, with all new supplemental material. The courses still use the effective conversation building-block method, with a 40-lesson coursebook and a quick-reference learner’s dictionary, but now all of the content has been thoroughly updated to include e-mail essentials and internet resources for each of the eight languages in the series. In addition, 18 supplemental vocabulary sections, covering such topics as “Family and Relationships,” “On the Job,” “Sports and Recreation,” and “Around Town,” are now included.
